March 24, 2016

SUBJECT: Stalking / Threats / Narcotics Arrest

CASE NUMBER: 1600998

DATE OCCURRED: March 22, 2016

TIME OCCURRED: 3:12 p.m.

Press Release Prepared by: Detective Sergeant Michael Guldner

On Tuesday, March 22, 2016, at approximately 3:12 p.m. San Bruno Police Officers received a report of a subject making threats to a resident on Riviera Court. Officers learned that the suspect, later identified as 34 year old San Francisco resident Jorge Macay, had made several calls and sent several text messages threatening multiple victims with violence. Mr. Macay made statements to a victim indicating that he has been stalking this subject.

For the next two days investigators worked to locate Macay while ensuring the safety of his intended victims. Macay was ultimately located and arrested at a residence on the 700 block of Second Avenue in San Bruno.

Macay was booked into the San Mateo County Jail for charges related to stalking, threats, and narcotic possession. He was also booked pursuant to $225,000 in arrest warrants issued in San Francisco for charges related to assault with a deadly weapon, domestic violence, criminal threats, and the possession of stolen property.

The San Bruno Police Department and other agencies are still investigating this case. Anyone with any information pertaining to this investigation is urged to contact the San Bruno Police Department at (650) 616-7100 or sbpd@sanbruno.ca.gov. Information regarding this case can be left anonymously.
